

Foothill 2030 Introduction

Mission Informed Planning Council (MIPC)
October 20, 2023

What is Foothill 2030?

Foothill 2030 is...

- Mission: What we do
- Vision: What we aspire to
- Ed Master Plan: How we plan to get there (and know we are making progress)

Foothill 2030 communicates our “brand” and “why Foothill”

Foothill 2030 Timeline

Part of the college planning cycle involving a regular review of the mission statement, vision statement, and the educational master plan

Fall 2023

- Form Foothill 2030 effort
- Identify
  - ❖ Vision statement group
  - ❖ Ed Master Plan group
- Approve Revised college mission statement
- Submit mission statement for Board approval

Winter 2024

- Review
  - ❖ Vision statement
  - ❖ Planning documents
- Identify alignment with Vision 2030

Spring 2024

- Approve revised vision statement
- Collect focus group perspectives
- Review existing data and metrics

Summer 2024

Draft Ed Master Plan

Fall 2024

- Draft Ed Master Plan
- Solicit campus feedback

Winter 2025

- Submit Ed Master Plan for Board approval

Who is involved?

- If you believe we can do better by our students
- If you want us to be ready for future students
- If you want to engage in conversations about why our work matters and can make a difference

Identify participants

- Led by key constituent groups
  - Administrator: Ajani Byrd
  - Classified Staff: Elaine Kuo
  - Faculty: Voltaire Villaneuva

For consideration:
ASFC engagement –
Identify a student lead?

Identify participants

- Ed Master Plan Team
  - Administrators (TBD)
  - Classified Staff (3)
  - Faculty (2)
  - Meetings in 2024 (biweekly)

For consideration:
ASFC engagement – Identify student representatives? Visit ASFC regularly to provide updates and feedback opportunities?

Identify participants

- Vision Statement Team
- Led by Foothill 2030 lead
- First meeting: Monday, November 13, 1-2 pm
- Anticipated 5-6 meetings winter quarter
- Work to conclude March/April 2024
- Constituency groups to identify representatives

