TO:Andrew LaManque, Ph.D.; Interim Vice President of Instruction and Institutional ResearchFROM:Angel Tzeng, Ph.D.; Instructional Services Coordinator-Student EquitySUBJECT:The First-Year Experience (FYE) Program Fall 2016 Memo

The First-Year Experience (FYE) Program at Foothill College is a one-year learning community program that seeks to provide first-year college students with the resources and support services needed to be successful in college. The FYE student profile and success rate is based on the 71 FYE students enrolled in Fall 2016.

Fall 2016 FYE Student Profile

- 70% of the FYE students are female and 30% of them are male.
- All FYE students had a student educational plan.
- 86% of the FYE students received Financial Aid including Pell Grant (43%).
- 86% of the FYE students reported an ethnicity of African American, Latino, and Filipino.

FYE Fall Retention and Course Success Rates

- 89% of the FYE students registered for Winter 2017 as of January 5, 2017.
- In ENGL 209, the success rate of targeted group students in FYE program is 14 percent points higher than non-FYE students, HIS 17A is similar in percent point differences, 10 percent points lower in MATH 235, and 20 percent points lower in PSYC 1.
