☑ Meets Expectations

☐ Needs Improvement

Feedback

> The program is commended for its goal and efforts to encourage gender equity across disciplines, especially through actively connecting students to various campus support resources. The program's recognition that an increase in students with an unknown gender suggests a need for increased emphasis on inclusivity is also to be commended.
> The review committee encourages the program to continue to connect students to student services and support resources as much as is feasible with limited program resources.
> Going forward, the review committee would be interested in seeing demographics by location as well as gender and ethnicity as the program expands to a broader service area.

D. Overall Student Course Success
