Popular Classes for High School Grads, University Students & Career-Training Professionals

Get a college class or two completed in between vacations and beach trips. Foothill's Summer Session is the smart destination for recent high school graduates, university students returning home for the break, and career professionals who are looking to upgrade their skills.

You can choose from a variety of general education, career development and personal enrichment courses. Our faculty is outstanding and our Summer Session is short—most classes meet for just six weeks.

Inside this edition of The Heights, you'll find a convenient listing of Foothill's summer classes. Select the class that interests you, then access www.foothill.edu for registration instructions and other important information.

Recent high school graduates can jump start their college experience by enrolling in Foothill's one-unit CNSL 50: Introduction to College course. Most CNSL 50 courses meet for just one week, and are offered mornings, afternoons, evenings and online.

University students who are on break can enroll in popular general education classes at Foothill that can be difficult to get into at the university, such as chemistry, accounting, business, math, physical education, political science, speech and many others.

If you're focused on upgrading your career skills, summer is an excellent time to improve your résumé by taking classes in a variety of areas, including business, computer programming, software and Internet technologies, graphic and interactive design, and art.

Foothill classes offer all the quality of a four-year university at a fraction of the cost. Our classes are $13 per unit for California residents. To register, access www.foothill.edu or call (650) 949-7325.

Is Our Planet in Peril?
Dynamics of a Changing Ocean, Atmosphere & Climate

Learn more about the Earth system as well as the facts and consequences of changing oceans, atmosphere and climate by enrolling in Foothill's oceanography or weather processes classes. These classes are transferable as physical science courses to all California State University and University of California campuses.

The four-unit OCEN 10: General Oceanography course examines the evolution of the ocean floor over time, the dynamics of the oceans themselves, and the fragile coastline and coastal ocean. Special emphasis will be given to human interaction with the ocean system. Mega waves, tsunami, earthquakes and volcanic processes will also be discussed.

You can also examine how droughts in Indonesia are directly related to our El Niño winters, and other important scientific topics and challenges in the four-unit MET 10: Weather Processes course. You'll study climate change and what scientists have learned about changing conditions around the planet.

For registration instructions, call (650) 949-7325 or access www.foothill.edu.

Great for Teachers & Multimedia Enthusiasts
Saturday Adobe Software Workshops

Use summertime Saturdays to learn a variety of Adobe software applications. The Krause Center for Innovation (KCI) at Foothill College will offer a variety of Adobe software classes that meet Saturdays from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. this summer.

Taught by the KCI's new Adobe-certified instructors, these one-half unit courses include Photoshop Elements, Acrobat, Premiere Elements, Contribute, Flash and Illustrator. The classes are designed for K–12 educators as well as community members who want to add Adobe applications to their skill sets.

For course meeting information and registration instructions, access www.krauseinnovationcenter.org or call (650) 949-7680.

Expanded Child Development Course Offerings

Foothill's popular Child Development Program continues its reputation for outstanding, comprehensive instruction by offering child development classes at the India Cultural Center in Milpitas. In addition, the program offers a variety of new child development classes this summer at the Foothill Middlefield Campus in Palo Alto.

Foothill courses and career certificates are designed to ensure that you meet the hiring requirements for the level of work you choose; meet the requirements to obtain permits to become a child development assistant associate teacher, teacher or site supervisor in state-licensed, publicly funded, center-based child care and development programs; and are prepared to continue your education in a bachelor's degree program.

For more information, call (650) 949-7322 or access www.foothill.edu/bss/childdevelopment.

For registration instructions, call (650) 949-7325 or access www.foothill.edu.

For Authors of All Ability Levels
32nd Annual Foothill Writers Conference

Authors of all ability levels can write and share poems, prose, fiction and non-fiction at the 32nd Annual Foothill College Writers Conference. Offered as a one-unit course, the conference runs July 9–13 and features intensive daily workshops, lectures and seminars.

Small group interaction is emphasized in the popular manuscript workshops, and gives participants the rare opportunity to have their creative pieces critiqued by professional authors and workshop peers. Also, prose and poetry readings are presented daily at noon and 7:30 p.m.

The conference fee is $53.50. Register online for the CRWR 120B: Creative Writers Conference class at www.foothill.edu/la/conference.php.

For more information, e-mail Conference Coordinator Doren Robbins at RobbinsDoren@foothill.edu or call (650) 949-7678.

High School Juniors & Seniors
Start Taking Foothill Classes

As a high school junior or senior, you're eligible to enroll in Foothill classes.

Foothill has a new Web site—www.foothill.edu/hs—for high school students, with recommended classes and the information you need to register for classes at Foothill.

You can enroll in Foothill classes after your parent and high school principal complete the required permission form. Download the form from www.foothill.edu/hs. Restrictions do apply. For more information, call (650) 949-7423. To register, access www.foothill.edu or call (650) 949-7325.

You Set the Time, Date & Topic
Schedule Your Counseling Appointments Online

Being a Foothill student just got easier! Now you can schedule your appointments with Foothill counselors online. By directly booking your appointment with a counselor, you choose the time, day and format that works best for your schedule.

Foothill's friendly counselors are highly skilled professionals who are available to meet with you to discuss everything from transfer agreements and graduation petitions to academic pressure and test anxiety. All Foothill counselors can help you with academic, transfer, career and personal matters, and all Foothill counselors are familiar with the prerequisites for Foothill's popular health care programs.

To book your appointment, you'll need your eight-digit Student Identification Number (SID). Make your appointment anytime by first accessing meetcounselor.hereweb.com and entering the required information. Of course, you can still schedule an appointment by phone by calling (650) 949-7423. Have your SID available when you call.
If you do not yet have or don't remember your SID, access www.foothill.edu/reg/stepschk.html and follow the prompts.

You're a New Student? Want Priority Registration?
Take the Introduction to College Course Now

Enroll in Foothill's one-unit CNSL 50: Introduction to College course this summer, and you'll get priority registration and the best selection of Fall Quarter classes. All new students are required to enroll in this orientation class, so it's smart to take it this summer.

Foothill's CNSL 50 course gives you an orientation to the programs and services that are available to you at Foothill College. You'll discuss academic policies and receive an overview of California's higher education system, including UC, CSU and private universities. You'll also explore career programs and university transfer options, so you can create the right educational plan to meet your needs.

Choose the CNSL 50 course that best suits your busy schedule. Most CNSL 50 courses meet just three times. To review course times, access the online schedule at www.foothill.edu or review the course listings section of this mailer.

You may be exempt from the course if you have verifiable proof that you have completed an orientation course at another college; completed 12 or more college units; or are enrolling only in recreational classes. To register, access www.foothill.edu or call (650) 949-7325.

Experience Plein Air Landscape Painting
Be Inspired by Summer, Surf & Sand

Summer, surf and sand are your inspiration when you register for Foothill's ART 19AS: Plein Air Landscape Painting class. Taught by award-winning master painter Joe Ragey, the 1.5-unit class gives you the experience of painting outdoors. You'll also study works by plein air masters from California's rich heritage of open air paintings. To register, access www.foothill.edu or call (650) 949-7325.

Make Sure You Don't Miss Out
Changes for Foothill's Anatomy & Physiology Series

Foothill is fine-tuning its BIOL 40: Human Anatomy & Physiology three-course series to keep its curriculum up to date. We encourage students to complete prerequisite courses this summer so they are ready to advance to the next level of instruction this fall.

New prerequisites for the BIOL 40 series, which begin in the fall, will require you to submit grade transcripts to verify that you have completed biology and chemistry prerequisite courses before you can enroll in Foothill's BIO 40A: Human Anatomy & Physiology course; and you must complete the BIOL 40A class before you will be permitted to enroll in the BIOL 40B and 40C courses.

For more prerequisites information, call (650) 949-7423. For registration instructions, call (650) 949-7325 or access www.foothill.edu.

Convenient Technology Instruction for Teachers

FastTech offers high-quality and affordable software and computer training in short, intensive classes especially for K-12 educators. Use a weekday afternoon or Saturday morning to learn new software applications by registering for FastTech classes that meet at the Krause Center for Innovation (KCI) at Foothill College. FastTech offers a variety of summer courses, including:

- LINC 202 Creating WebQuests
- LINC 208 Advanced Searching & Researching the Internet for Educators

Geographic Information System Technology
Harness the Power of Information

Learn how to harness the power of information in Foothill's one-unit GEOG 101: An Introduction to Computer-Based Mapping & Geographic Information Systems (GIS) course.

You'll learn how to use GIS resources to integrate, store, edit, analyze, share and display geographically referenced information. Whether you want to better understand how your car's Global Positioning Systems (GPS) device works or pursue a lucrative GIS career, this class is designed to give you a non-technical introduction to GIS with an emphasis on applications and career opportunities. In addition to participating in hands-on practical exercises, you'll learn about a variety of free and low-cost GIS software.

For registration instructions, call (650) 949-7325 or access www.foothill.edu.

Write Right
Writing Proposals, Grants, Reports, Manuals & More

Learn to apply your writing skills in professional settings by enrolling in the five-unit ENGL 3: Technical Writing online course. You'll learn to recognize the needs of different audiences and produce writing for a variety of formats, including proposals, formal reports, manuals, letters, resumes, instructions, Web sites and others.

An ideal personal and professional development option, the course is designed for working professionals as well as students who are completing university transfer requirements.

For registration information, access www.foothill.edu or call (650) 949-7325.

Admission Criteria
Admission to Foothill College is open to anyone who is a high school graduate or equivalent (GED or CHSPE), or who is at least 18 years old. High school juniors and seniors may take classes with permission from a parent or guardian and high school principal. Separate application is required for some programs, such as those in applied health and apprenticeship trades.

Limited English Policy
Prospective students are advised that a lack of English language skills will not be a barrier to admission to, or participation in vocational education programs at Foothill College as long as other, if any, program admission standards are met. This notice is a requirement of the Guidelines for Elimination Discrimination & Denial of Services on the Basis of Race, Color, National Origin, Sex & Handicap (Federal Register; Vol. 44, No. 56). Reglamento sobre Limitaciones en el Idioma Inglés—Se les aconseja a posibles estudiantes que la carencia del idioma Inglés no será una barrera para la admisión, o participación en programas de educación vocacional en Foothill College, siempre y cuando todos los otros, si existieran, criterios de admisión del programa sean completados. Esta nota es un requisito de la Guía para la Eliminación de la Decscriminación y Rechazo de Servicios en Base a la Raza, Color, Nacionalidad de Origen, Sexo e Impedimento (Registro Federal; Vol. 44, No. 56).

Non-Discrimination Statement
Foothill College does not discriminate against any person in the provision of any program or service based on race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, gender, religion, sexual orientation, marital status, physical disability or mental disability. Coordination of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibiting sex discrimination, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 governing accessibility is the responsibility of Foothill Dean of Faculty & Staff Pat Hyland, (650) 949-7090.
