Highlights

- Governor's May Revision Proposed Budget for 2021-22
- Ongoing Funding Changes
- One-time Funding Changes
- Legislature's Version of the 2021-22 Budget
- Budget Dates

State Budget

- Governor's May Revise includes $75.7 billion surplus, plus approx. $25 billion in federal relief funds.
  - The State projects exceeding the GANN Limit by $16 billion for 2020-21 & 2021-22
    - Limits Spending based on Proposition 4 (1979)
    - Amounts over the GANN Limit are split 50% to education and 50% as a rebate to tax payers
      - Proposal reflects rebates during the 2021-22 budget year
      - K-14 would receive excess funds in the 2022-23 year
- Projections to State revenues are higher than Governor's January Preliminary Budget:
  - Personal Income Taxes – are generated by higher income workers earning more and paying more taxes
  - Corporate Taxes – some companies in California are seeing higher profits
  - Sales and Use Taxes – spending from both individuals and businesses receiving stimulus funds and higher income workers spending more than expected

Ongoing Funding Changes:

- Proposed COLA of 4.05% to the SCFF (Student Centered Funding Formula)
  - 2.3% for 2020-21 FY to be paid in 2021-22
