Hello all,

I think I have indeed added to the confusion for some and not clarified the masking issue. The purpose of the email below is to let everyone know that the website about masking for students had not yet been changed (no one on duty over the weekend ) so students would not know of any change in policy and will come to classes based on what they have seen on the website. I merely wanted to alert everyone.

Best regards,

Dear Faculty and Staff members,

There has been considerable confusion over exactly what is our district's masking policy and what will happen tomorrow, when in-person classes begin. Let me assure you that the district's masking policy for all students to mask, remains on our website, unchanged: <https://foothill.edu/healthservices/covid19-health-safety/faqs-students.html#masks>, so you should expect students to be masked for indoor classes or meetings, and you can conduct your activities this week, as you had planned.

Best regards,

Bernadine
